

Vertical Horizon, It's Only Me

I am the blood
I am the heartbeat
I am the needle drawing me from me
Separate vials for the vile I see

I am the mind
And I know what I know
Fragments of pictures form my core
All strewn about on this prison floor

Chorus
Watched on by secret eyes
Hidden internal lies
It's only me
I get afraid of the dark sometimes
I can't see
When the light shines I find it's only me

I am the flood
And I am the cleansing
Reckless and pure still unsure
I got aimless precision

I am the savior
And I am my brother
Holding me in locking me out
Different room for a different doubt

Chorus

I am the blood
And I am the heartbeat
I am the needle drawing me from me
Separate vials for the vile I see
