

Vertical Horizon, Underwater

You and I are here
Underwater
Seconds are so dear
Underwater
I'm searching for a light to draw me closer I hold my breath in tight bring me to closer

I feel your touch
will you pull me up again?

It's not so bad down here
Underwater
Once you get past the fear
Underwater
I sense you through the haze
just like a memory
We've been down here for days have you seen me?

I feel your touch
will you pull me up again?

It's all the same to me
Underwater
There's nothing much to see
Underwater
I cannot make a sound
but I can listen
I can't tell up from down
And now I miss them

I feel your touch
will you pull me up again?

You're just in sight will you save my life again?

You and I are here
Underwater
