

Vertigo Angels, Burned

kicking off the walls i'm breathing with this tightrope tension kicking off the walls it's easy with my new conviction one look said it all you're touching me without your fingers nothing left at all it's easy to believe you all that i have is in sympathy all that i have you burned a hole through me i'm blind but i can see you're locked inside of me i'm burned kicking off the walls and kicking off this bent protection kicking off the walls and shaking with my new conviction one look said it all you're touching me without your fingers
nothing left at all it's easy to believe you all that i have is in sympathy all that i have is inside of me all that i have is in sympathy all that i have
you're locked inside of me i'm burned i'm burned
i'm burned i'm burned
