

Vertigo Angels, Eva Green

eva green or so it seemed you said you wanted me eva green i never dreamed you'd turn away from me take a break please stay awake don't lose your sense of self protection
'cause i've seen too much to rely on luck so i'll take my chances if it bleeds me dry
'cause i've seen too much to rely on luck so i'll take my chances if it bleeds me dry
eva green or so it seemed you said you wanted me eva green i never dreamed you'd hold me under take a break please stay awake don't lose your sense of self perspective
'cause i've seen too much to rely on luck so i'll take my chances if it bleeds me dry
i've seen too much
i've seen too much
i've seen too much
'cause i've seen too much to rely on luck so i'll take another chance if it bleeds me dry
'cause i've seen too much to rely on luck so i'll take my chances if it bleeds me dry
i bleed too i bleed too much
i bleed too i bleed too much
