

Vesania, Mystherion. Crystaleyes

shadows of my broken will engraved the scar in purity yet i shall wear the wings i received for i am to march through and the blood of might is a frozen tear crystalized illuminating black silence fallen down through the looking glass forsaken by things i used to feel follow the path of ice and silver rays in mirrors luminous blade scenario blackheart utopia galaxies unveil sources to agonies starlit flames crossed the skies by fire i transcend the transcendence by fire of everlasting will no continuity of times one eternity to one allegiance
shadows of my broken will
yet i shall wear wings i received
is a frozen tear crystaliced
