

Vesania, Phosphorror

frightening light, glimpsing truth the one with splendour self-styled archangel ravishing strength beyond reach to confront years of knowledge burned and lost forever so there was the one who ruled Joined the crowded pantheon Heads removed by mankind's rapture Violent native-histories revolution Hollow blindness, apotheosis of lies but there was the one, who stood upon godliness one, who confronted, one who brought the light unfold the realm of torture dementia threw their masks away forgiven he never was from the darkened skies the fallen star (burned?)
- but since now wear your veil fear not to undergo curses!
Hatred through my veins Order of black we caress Retransgress ashen floating truth Release chained shivering will Obedience denial
Regicide, forlorn hope! now! stand where you are, watch around none prevailed?! watch your theory of unity then seek for unity of your theory
