

Vetiver, You May Be Blue

you may be blue
but you dark my day
throw shadows my way
break my mind
while you say that you've been treating me kind who are you foolin'?

my time with you
beat a thorn-filled path blood filled where we passed through blood red with wrath
you all knew that we'd be fine find by nothing at all

I know my way
and it won't be long
you're gonna wake one day to find me gone
and there won't be nothing but goodbye nothing nothing but goodbye
