

Vex Red, Itch

You know I've always felt
I'm here with no-one else
I feel I've come apart.
You've seen what's in my heart

I get so bored, make your move
Won't waste away for you
Don't bring me down
We're the same, I am crying out loud too

Chorus:
I'm feeling all your pain
You know I feel the same
You really shouldn't question me
You are never satisfied
It's fucking me inside
You really shouldn't question me

It's true it's all because of you
We're all so lost
You sleep to rest your head
But me, I sleep... to dream

Chorus 2x
