

Vex Red, Vert

Hide away, keep safe,
Put you're hands on you're eyes,
They won't mind.

They're scared that you will be fine,
I hear you whisper "i'll be home soon";
Fake with open arms

Rests inside of you,
You should see the harm, they can do to you,
If we stay too long.

Being led to sleep,
I wanted you to touch,
I wanted you to see,
They'll never find you through you're hands,
I tried to give you all i can.

Because I'm quiet, you think i'm weak,
But all my secrets belong to me,
Fake with open arms.
