

Via Audio, Harder On Me

Wouldnt even matter to you if I left
It wouldnt even make a dent in your day
Well I dont wanna be here if Im not wanted
Or noticed anyway

It doesnt even matter to me at this point
Cause youve been doing it to me all this time
It doesnt even matter if you see me crying
Cause you should hear it in my voice

But you dont wanna hear me so you dont
Well I dont wanna be here so I wont

I wont make this any harder than it needs to be
So dont make this any harder on me

Couldnt even bother with goodbyes
It couldnt even make your eyes meet mine
Well I dont wanna call us anything but strangers
So much for family ties

But you dont wanna hear me so you dont
I dont wanna be here so I wont

I wont make this any harder than it needs to be
So dont make this any harder on me
