

Via Audio, Modern Day Saint

This life is so mysterious
So bright, the lights, no fear in us
But then we get inside
For the perky ride
Then we all look back
At the strange attack
Oh no!
Hes much too young
Please dont take this one

Dont say good bye, dont say good night
Come inside by the pound
Waiting for this crowd
Theyll all draw in without expecting
A broken body, the bands finale
Now all surround, this body going down
In this small town

Precious light dont decide his night
Put aside your needs for just one night
Yeah, he doesnt have to (see you)
Not everybody (needs to)
And we wander back
Hanging on out your spirits
Running dry

Dont say good bye, dont say good night
Come inside by the pound
Waiting for this crowd
Theyll all draw in without expecting
A broken body, the bands finale
Now all surround, this body going down
A broken body, the bands finale
And theyll all surround, this body going down
