Sending all your presents down
Ill still throw all of them out

It takes two to put out
Lights that shine around us
Dont you want to try this
Darkness wont destroy us
Oh oh

Well open and divide
Some kind of pretense keeps us friends, for a while
Im always staring at your smile
Im always staring at your smile
Yeah it drives me wild

It takes two to put out
Lights that shine around us
Dont you want to try this
Darkness wont destroy us
Oh oh

It takes two to put out
Lights that shine around us
Dont you want to try this
Darkness wont destroy us
Oh oh
