

Vicious Rumors, Blacklight

(Lyrics: Morgan Thorn, Geoff Thorpe)

I once knew a girl, when I was still a mortal man
I dream of being human, to live my life again
I can dream...
I am a prisoner entangled in your web, let me go
The song of the siren diva, devouring your dead
So cold, so very cold...
She's got magnetic eyes and an iron gaze
They tore my soul apart, all apart
Feeding on my energy, she dehumanized my heart
But I can dream...
I am a prisoner entangled in your web, let me go
The song of the siren diva, devouring your dead
So cold, so very cold...
As I embrace the other side, the eternal dark
There's something wicked in your eyes
I couldn't recognize
You put your venom in my veins
I can't take this pain
Now I'm immortally your man, mistress of the damned
Black light love affair, black light love affair...
