

Vicious Rumors, Kill The Day

(S.Smyth, G.Thorpe & B.Oconner)

Roll the stone that held down your soul for so long
The head games they played on your mind like a song
Take a chance, become one with all your fears
Seize the moment you waited for all of these years
Time won't wait for me
Seize the moment, be on your game, you will succeed
But you are waiting, digging yourself a hole
Insane, crazy, alone
Waiting as time passes by
You are waiting for something to show
To be your best you've got to take it all the way
You've got the guts now go out and take on the fame
Make a stand show what your heart has to say
Bring it on you tried so hard, just go all the way
Don't stop now, you've come so far just to beat the game
