

Vicious Rumors, Ministry Of Fear

(Lyrics: G. Thorpe // Music: M. McGee)

After God and after taxes
The puppets who betray the masses
Reanimate the commonwealth
Innerstructure in bad health
Like a beast locked in a cage
Manipulation time again
In their sleep they're never more sincere
Together we will reign
With everything to gain

(Chorus)

In this ministry of fear
Retribution is here... right here
Segregation - people cry
While racist hate is on the rise
So you're looking to the church
Something for a world of hurt
They nail your money to the cross
Writing off a corporate loss
In their sleep they're never more sincere
Together we will reign
With everything to gain

(Chorus)

In this ministry of fear
Together we will reign
With everything to gain
Life's a little strange
