

Vicky Beeching, Suddenly

Awaken us to see
The reality of eternity and feel it near
Awaken us to pray
As we watch and wait and anticipate with Holy fear
For the day You'll return again
Is closer now than it's ever been...

Chorus:
Suddenly, every eye will see
As You return in glory
Suddenly, every knee will fall
Before heaven's coming King

Jesus, here we stand, lifting up our hands
Asking You to purify our lives
So on that glorious day
When we stand face to face
Unashamed, we'll dance in heaven's light

For the moment is drawing near
When our radiant King will appear...

(chorus)

The Spirit and the Bride say, "come soon, Lord"
The Spirit and the Bride say, "come soon"
The Spirit and the Bride say, "come soon, Lord"

Suddenly

(chorus)
