

Victims Family, Song X

slag me and i wonder, you steal my thunder we're torn asunder, what the fk? hey man that's rather stupid and it's useless can't we see that it just sucks? all these word attacks behind my back feels like a knife stuck in my back now listen!
then i see you walking we don't talk and we just gawk and step aside i feel that it's useless and it's stupid and it's just our stupid pride and i see forever i will try but i'll be nothing in your eyes why are we divided? i've decided it's beside the point to fight and i feel it's useless and it's stupid and
it's just our stupid pride if we were united, not divided, we might right some of the wrongs with our songs and the words to our songs
