

Victoria Beckham, I'd Give It All away

I got this feeling and it's driving me wild i haven't seen you for a little while i got this feeling and it just won't go away then you came and showed me how to love this way but there's one thing that i should let you know i'd give it all away, i'd sacrifice everything with every beat of my heart like you i couldn't breathe i feel like we're meant to be
i'm falling in love again holding me close in your arms with you is where i should be
where i should be
where i should be
where i should be
feels like i'm dreaming and i can't wake up we have forever but it's never enough feels like i'm dreaming cos i can't believe it's real you taught me and showed me how to love this way but there's one thing i ought to let you know
where i should be
where i should be
