

Victory, As Time Goes Passing By

She dries the eyes that saw
A million sleepless nights
An empty house where only
Memories abide
Her life is dull no hope at all
Shes lost her pride
When Eddie left she turned
To drugs and paracites
She wants to scream
But no one listens anyway
Forgotten dreams that used
To keep her kinda straight
The will to live is fading fast
She doesnt care
The silent sound of loneliness
Forever her own

Another sunrise
On a meaningless day
Another journey
Back to nowhere again

What is there to live for
For a girl out of love
With a heartache for life
As time goes passing by

Where can she turn
What can she do
Without a friend
Shes in so deep nobody lends a helping hand
And time wont wait for anyone or anything
Cause theyve problems of their own
Thats cold reality

Somebody somebody out theres got to help
Shes falling a falling deep down into hell
Stuck in a room of gloom on her own
Nobody even cares
'Bout a victim of the love game
As times goes passing by

Cant anyone anywhere
Help her out in any way
A victim of circumstance fading away
When Mr. Blue calls in on you
Send him away
Whats done is done
You cant erase your yesterdays
Dont lose yourself
- Because some guy lost out on you
Theres no use in believing
Youre to blame in any way
Theres no point in deceiving
Hurting yourself in this way
A victim of the love game
