

Victory, Fool

Passion still rules the world
Victims fall everywhere
Something just fools can feel
Cause love is in the air

Caught in the storm of emotion
Blinded by wild desire
Somebody help
Somebody please control the fire

Theres a light
In the middle of the night
I wanna try
Theres a light
In the middle of the night
To make you mine

No other fool
Could love you like I do
Infatuation rules
No other fool
Could move the earth for you
No other fool but me
Something above this planet
Tells me that you are right
Sent down to earth
To fee my hungry appetite
Give me the key to your heart
Ill keep you satisfied
Well be soon strong
Stand in the storm of life as one

Theres a light
In the middle of the night
I wanna try
There is a light
In the middle of the night
To make you mine

My love is waiting
To move a mountain
