

Victory, No Way Tonight

Shes been moving it his way
For the best part of the day
He shivers by the look in her eyes
Hes a travelling man
Who knows theres a chance
Theres no harm in asking
If the chemistrys right

No way tonight
Mama says with a smile
No way tonight
But its only a matter of time

Now the heat is really on
I guess thats half the fun
Is she a tiger dressed in disguise
She can play hard to get
As long as he gets
Love on the rocks
Love of his life

Nasty news the guys all confused
Insecure but still may be surprise
Man hes hot
She knows what shes got
Will she strike will she not
Will she leave him outside

No way tonight
Mama says with a smile
No way tonight
But its only a matter of time
