

Viki Gabor, Stop Playing Games

Where you've been Where you at
I've been calling you all night, all night, all night
Out with your friends
It's happening again
Can't control yourself, baby
Late night walking out with you, holding hands
Why am I doing this ?
I'm losing myself

Trusted you way too many times
Gotta help myself
Forget to know I am
No more looking back
I'm focusing on myself

My crown fell in love
And now I'm picking it up
Why you playing games
Just keep it straight with me
X2

Prices are big
How you gonna pay for it ?
You're poisoning my help
You got it to the risk
Can do it
I just be your man
I was your protector, your saviour
No manner in crime mercy
I was your protector, your saviour

Tried to play me
And you played yourself
Now you're holding my tears
Oh no no no no no
Talk to me nice and I'll give you a chance
Oh my last chance
Come beg for it
Beg for it yeah yeah

My crown fell in love
And now I'm picking it up
Why you playing games
Just keep it straight with me
