

Villains To The Masses Heroes To The Holy, Hate

We did nothing wrong, we just tried our best, babe
And it wasn't good enough for you
Every song was so different, so different from the rest
And that's what made us the fing best

So it's okay if you hate me (if you hate me baby)
Cause you just don't understand (understand)
We're just trying to build a better world
And you keep tearing us down

Don't come to me, telling me about your new band
We've heard all of it before
We'll here's an idea, try originality
We've all heard MXPX before

So it's okay if you hate me (if you hate me baby)
Cause you know I speak the truth (the truth)
You cover bands lay nothing new on the line
You are wasting our time

Search for inspiration, search high and low, Henry Rollins is my recommendation

So it's okay if you hate me (if you hate me baby)
And if you don't like our band (our band)
We're just here for all the legit music fans
So take what from us you can
