

Villains To The Masses Heroes To The Holy, Riot

The world can change in the blink of an eye
And in that second you take your place
God protect us from lies we believe
Its time this time to be ready for anything

My life is the story of a traitor in hell
A riot smile is the lie that we sell
My words are the testament before we fell
A riot smile is the right to rebel

Clench your teeth and take the trip
I guarantee that it's worth the time spent
At your feet I claim the prize
Cast gaze to heaven with surrogate eyes

My life is the story of a traitor in hell
A riot smile is the lie that we sell
My words are the testament before we fell
A riot smile is the right to rebel

The world can change in the blink of an eye
And in that second I catch your face
Your bang-bang lifestyle, you gotta run
Make those heroes pay for what they've done

My life is the story of a traitor in hell
A riot smile is the lie that we sell
My words are the testament before we fell
A riot smile is the right to rebel
