VINCE GILL, Lucy Dee

(Steve Earl)

I've been sittin' here talkin' at you all night long Now honey you still come off cool Well you could have walked away instead you're leadin' me on Lucy who you tryin' to fool

[Chorus:]
Yeah, Lucy Dee
You ain't got to run that line on me
Well it's plain to see
That you ain't all that you're made out to be
Well you can tell all your friends
That you finally met your equal, Lucy Dee

You've known all along just what I'm talkin' about Well you knew someday there'd come a man Who wouldn't keep on givin' 'til he finally gave out Lucy, honey, here I stand

[Chorus]

Well you tell me you've known every thrill there is to know And nothin' in this life comes free... nothin' Well you tell me you've been every way there is to go Lucy you ain't been with me

[Chorus]

Poor Lucy Dee
