

VINCE GILL, There's Not Much Love Here Anymore

(Vince Gill)

Rain rain come on down
You're so welcome at my door
Come on down and ease the pain
I never hurt this bad before

Tears keep falling from my eyes
And all I do is walk the floor
It's not too hard to realize
There's not much love here anymore

Rain rain come blowin' in
Come wash these tears away again
Leavin's cut me to the core
There's not much love here anymore

Rain rain come blowin' in
Come wash these tears away again
Leavin's cut me to the core
There's not much love here anymore

Rain rain come blowin' in
Come wash these tears away my friend
Leavin's cut me to the core
There's not much love here anymore
