

VINCE GILL, Two Hearts

(Vince Gill, Leslie Satcher)

There's a man drinkin' whiskey in a barroom
He's nursin' a broken heart
There's a woman at a table
With her own brand of misery
Cryin' in the dark

[Chorus:]

Will two hearts make one tonight
Will somebody lost find someone who's lost
Will strangers find comfort
In the cold neon light
Will two hearts make one tonight

Oh, there's just a waitress between them
They're so close to finding their dreams
They're just one dance away
From easing the pain
Of coming apart at the seams

[Chorus 2x]

Will two hearts make one tonight
