

VINCE GILL, What They All Call Love

(Vince Gill)

It ain't about you, it ain't about me
It's about this love we found that has to be
I never questioned that look in your eyes
And you never doubted how I felt inside

[Chorus:]

We found passion and grace in each other's face
And our heart's will now beat as one
For we both know a place where our souls have embraced
I think it's what they all call love

This gift you've given humbles me
True companions we'll always be
For so long we've waited to feel what we feel
We've finally tasted something that's real

[Chorus 2x]

I think it's what they all call love
