

Vince Vance And The Valiants, Christmas Just Ain't

Don't you know it always happens
same time every year.
Snow flakes and heartaches and that lonesome Christmas chill

I keep going through emotions hiding from the truth don't you know that Christmas just ain't Christmas without you

You know Christmas hasn't been the same
since the day you left.
I still send you
real tight greetings hoping someday
you might forget

I try to hold up tradition do all the things we used to do but you know that Christmas just ain't Christmas without you.

Cause all are having Silent night memories of how we used to be and all would come back to my world if you just let Santa bring your sweet love home to me.

There's a season
to be happy but Lord I feel so blue cause girl Christmas
just ain't Christmas without you.
