

Vink, The greatest plan

You say you only sleep with someone you love
Guess you really, really must love a lot
Anyone who told you to be yourself co-co-co-couldn't be more wrong
Yeah I thought that you'd be really special - oh
Thought that you'd be good-hearted
'cause your outer casing ain't gorgeous
Love is blind and bloody stupid
Yeah, I got the greatest plan, you gotta go
When you're not home, we get along so good, so good
Damn I'm stuck on you
You say your lies are all white, but you la-la-la-la lie yourself blue
Good things come if you're patient, guess I must have rushed a bit with you Forever is a very, very long time, oh, a mess with the devil and all her friends
They said that nothing ever could tear us apart,
But man, they paid me well to make it happen
Yeah, I got the greatest plan, you gotta go
When you're not home, we get along so good, so good
Damn I'm stuck on you
I might have been a bit too clever I admit it You deserve this anyway, I cannot stay, I should thank god there's more than one in a million Yeah, I got a great
Yeah, I got the greatest plan, you gotta go
When you're not home, we get along so good, so good
Damn I'm stuck on you
Yeah, I got the greatest, I got the greatest
I got a great
I think I made myself understood
