

Vinnie Vincent Invasion, Love Kills

So long since I've waited
To live again
You've brought my world to an end
Love takes it's victim and leaves it's remains
My broken heart has died in vein

Tell me why have we forsaken
The dreams we had
The pain makes it so hard to understand

You're life time ago
But a memory away
And I'll love you 'til my resurrection day

Love Kills, The fire's gone
Dying ember still remain
Love Kills, And now you've gone
Girl, I'll never be the same
Again

Without your love, Life seems so dead, so unreal
And now there's nothing left to feel
Someday we'll meet again,
Oh Girl, that much I know
At heaven's gate we'll say hello

Now I hear the wind is calling,
My lonely, lonely soul
For Sorrows trembling hands please,
Let Me Go

Love Kills, The fire's gone
Dying ember still remain
Love Kills, And now you've gone
Girl, I'll never be the same
Again

(Love's dying sin, Is just dust in the wind
I face the other side of no tomorrow)*

Love Kills, The fire's gone
Dying ember still remain
Love Kills, And now you've gone
Girl, I'll never be the same

Love Kills, And love is just
A dying ember in the rain
Love Kills, A heart betrayed
Oh Lord, Please, Please, Please Ease my pain
Oh Love Kills, Girl I need your love
Love Kills, With all it's heart
Girl, I'm crying in the rain
