

Viola Beach, Boys That Sing

She's a rhino, she's a wino
She's a tightrope, we'll be fine though
Singing woah-oh-oh-oh, what do they know?

She's a libra, and I need her
The monalisa, would wanna be her
Singing woah-oh-oh-oh

And she said that together we could take on the world
And she told me that I'll never find another girl like her

She's in Lycra, I don't like her
She's a tiger, but not as violent
Singing woah-oh-oh-oh, what do they know

She's a weirdo, and a little
She's a beer girl, and she's cheerful
Singing woah-oh-oh-oh, what do they know

And she said that together we can take on the world
And she told me that I'd never find another girl like her
And she said that together we could do anything
And she told me that she loves a boy who knows how to sing, so I learnt how to sing
