

Violent Delight, I'll Be Waiting

Feel walls when I
I picked up and realize
I saw you it when you
You put your life on hold for them
I know
You'd do my life someday
You know
You wanna do the same

This is what I have become
A chosen scrap out on my own
You'll see
I've been waiting for things that never come
Here with nowhere to run

Come home and I
I see a changing anytime
I've saw it when you
Miss all the things you leave behind
I know
I feel it all the time
You know
That this is the last time

This is what I have become
A chosen scrap out on my own
You'll see
I've been waiting for things that never come
Here with nowhere to run

So why did you have to lie?
I see through and I'm saying
I realise
Second time
You know you have to pay it twice
I'm losing it all the time
You're turning back 'cause you're not on me
You're turning back 'cause you're not on me
You're turning back 'cause you're not on me
You're not on me

This is what I have become
A chosen scrap out on my own
You'll see
I've been waiting for things that never come
Here with nowhere to run

I've been waiting
A chosen scrap out on my own
I've been waiting
You'll see
I've been waiting
For things that never come
I've been waiting
With nowhere to run
