

Violent Delight, Nothing To Lose

Some days I'm better off dead
My words often go to my head
I look around, there's nothing to do
But that's okay cos I've got nothing to lose

Nothing to lose
Nothing to try for
Just a lost cause
Nothing to die for

Long day, you know what I mean
I walk about like I'm in a dream
I know there's nothing to do
But it's okay cos I've got nothing to lose

Hey, Hey, Hey

Time goes, it's not always my friend
Time trips me up when it's the end
I know there's nothing to do
But when I've got nothing, what can I lose?
