

Violent Femmes, I Can Change (I Swear It)

some people say that i'm a bad guy they may be right, they may be wrong but its not as if I don't try, I just mess up and I go wrong.
but i can change, i can change
i can learn to keep my promises i swear it open up my heart and i will dare it. any minute now i swear i'll change. oh its strange yes its strange though i guess its quite clear i killed the antelope and deer and there's no home on my range inside i'm a little deranged but i can change. its not my fault that i'm so evil its society, sobriety ya know my momma picked cotton and my daddy bull weevil it was history, it wasn't me.
but i can change i can change
i can learn to keep my promises i know it. open up my heart and i will show it any minute now yes yes i will you'll never change you'll never change you'll always be a dog with mange yes but dont be such a fool manna from heaven shall be my food my acts of kindness were misconstrued god above will watch me change and while i'm changing i'll be changing i'm gonna change. Soon.
but i can change, i can change
open up my heart and i will dare it any minute now i swear i'll share it i am gonna change.
