

Violet Indiana, Innocent

I found your picture hidden in your drawer
You looked so innocent... And beautiful
Were you just curious?
Were you just young and insecure?
Did it make you happy?
Did he make you feel secure?
Was a life that you don't remember anymore?
Did he kiss you gently?
And did he lead you wanting more?

Before you ignore me
I'll show you who you are
Before you ignore me
I'll show you who you are

I saw your faces
I know what you did before
You went to places you don't go anymore
You try to hide it
But there are no secrets anymore
Did he kiss you sweetly?
Did he kiss away your fear?

Before you ignore me
I'll show you who you are
Before you ignore me
I'll show you who you are

Before you ignore me
I'll show you who you are
Before you ignore me
I'll show you who you are

Before you ignore me
I'll show you who you are
Before you ignore me
I'll show you who you are
