

Violet Indiana, The Visit

This is the beginning
You're on the road
Your secret journey
That no one will know
No need for words
Oh, just let yourself go
Enjoy what i'm doing
'Cos no one will know

This is the visit
Just lie yourself down
The curtains are closed now
And there in no one around

I'm here for pleasure
Oh, i'll be who you need
Call me whoever
'Cos i'm here to please

This is the visit
Just lie yourself down
The curtains are closed now
And there in no one around

This is the visit
Just lie yourself back down
This is the visit
Lie yourself down
The curtains are closed now
Don't you look down

This is the visit
Where you can be with me
Be who you need to be
You're safe here with me

This is the visit
No one will know
Let me listen
Before you go
Remember at least i'll be your secret girl
Come back and see me
