

Vir, Be strong

My life, my girl
My hart is broken, wants to rest
Its time to go, to close the door
Its hard to leave you now but I must be strong
You talk to me like never did before
My life, my girl
You broke the promises again
Its time to miss the, miss the turn
I have to let my bag to the passing by
The one thet will forget all lies and hurts
My life, my girl
She made my world a hole of pain
With lies, betrays and lost of sour
Some people say to me that I mist be strong
They neve had to love the one I love
Specjal
I grab to lost once melody
I start to shorten all my dreams
I walk awaken till the dawn
My eyes would open never more
