

Vir, Prayers

If you dont know which way to go
When you have lost your power
But youre the only one to know
Haw to resist the violence
All your prayers
I know, I hear your prayers
The time you cry
Ive seen your tears today
All your prayers
You want to crawl
You want to die before the dawn
If you dont know which way to go
When you have lost your power
But youre the only one to know
Haw to resist the violence
Youre not alone
You neednt send your prayers
I want you to see you now
Try to go, try to let it go
Youre not alone
You musnt stand still
You must run for your life
Leaving home, youre leaving home
Pack up your bags, all things you own
You know how this story ends
