

Vir, Sunrise

Sunrise is calling the day to last.
Here comes the moment to start new life.

Feels like the bad time's gone,
I don't care about that no more.
Feels like the bad time's gone,
I don't care about that no more.

I know that
Falling hundred times
Can make you crawl or teach to fly.
I know that
Falling hundred times
Can make you crawl or teach to fly.

Sunrise is calling the day to last.
Maybe it's time to forget the past.

I know that
Falling hundred times
Can make you crawl or teach to fly.
Feels like the new day's come.
I almost touch it, I hear its gentle call.
Feels like the new day's come.
I almost touch it, I hear its gentle...

Hey you learn to fly
Hey you learn to fly
Hey you learn to fly
Hey you learn to fly

I know that
Falling hundred times
Can make you crawl or teach to fly.
I know that
Falling hundred times
Can make you crawl or teach to fly.
