

Virtue, Everything Will Be Alright

Through all of the hurt and the pain
Through all the stormy nights and the hard rain
Through all of the trails that you go through
God has a blessing waiting for you
The sun will come out and it will shine
And you can make it through all of the hard times
With love so sweet and divine
Everything will be just fine

(Chorus) I know you feel like you just can't make it
And the heartache and pain isn't worth it
But joy comes in the morning
When the sun shines
Everything will be alright
Everything will be alright
Just keep your head up high
Up towards the sky
And everything will be alright

You see trails come just to make you stronger
Time will get rough and they'll get harder
So when you feel like you can't make it through
He'll show you what to do
So don't give up, nor give in
To what the devil gives to you
So hold your head up high and believe
There's going to be a bright day

(Chorus) I know you feel like you just can't make it
And the heartache and pain isn't worth it
But joy comes in the morning
When the sun shines
Everything will be alright
Everything will be alright
Just keep your head up high
Up towards the sky
And everything will be alright

He will never put more on you
Than you can bear, but life ain't easy
Life is just no crystal stair
Just have faith, He'll see you through
Just keep your head up high
Everything will be all right
All right, all right
All right, all right
All right, all right
All right, all right

(Chorus) I know you feel like you just can't make it
And the heartache and pain isn't worth it
But joy comes in the morning
When the sun shines
Everything will be alright
Everything will be alright
Just keep your head up high
Up towards the sky
And everything will be alright
