

Virtue, Now's The Time

CHORUS: Now's the time to choose whom you will serve don't you let another day without GOD on

Listen to that voice that's quietly calling your name answer and I promise you will never be the same It's your life we're talking here so have no fear don't you think it's time you have peace of mind

CHORUS x2

Now- your eyes are filled with tears of loneliness that's good news true love and nothing less You can start anew just give your life to JESUS he will make You brand new

Don't wait tomorrow might be too late why wait
won't you let him in he wants to show you love unconditional forever more and you'll know how much he loves you Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
doo doo doo doo doo do yeah You better choose this day make a choice right now CHORUS (till out)
