

Visqueen, Mrs. Elder

Immaculate hearts agree
Your love can set me free
Don't be afraid to love me now
Don't be afraid to love because someday all our days will be Sundays
Boy don't we deserve them?
Soon as you say all our days will be Sundays
Boy don't we deserve them

Doesn't this make you homesick?
It does me, but it does the trick
What do you know you've met your match
Ready to love with strings attached
Leaving your lonely heart behind

Someday all our days will be Sundays
Boy don't we deserve them?
Soon as you say all our days will be Sundays
Boy don't we deserve them
