

Viva Voce, Believer

I'm a believer now
I'm a believer now
And there's nothing that I can do
To keep me safe from you

I'm a believer now
I'm a believer now
And there's nothing that I can do
To keep me safe from you

I'm a believer now
I'm a believer now
Cause I've seen what they can do
And they still don't have a clue

I'm a believer now
I'm a believer now
Cause I've seen what they can do
And they'll beat you black and blue

All you people talking crazy
Famous friends are rich and lazy
Yeah...

I'm a believer now
I'm a believer now
I'm a believer now
I'm a believer now
