

Vivian Green, Can't Say It Enough

Love is a beautiful thing
It's more rare
Than a diamond ring
So if you find it
Try to keep it
Be strong together
'Cause you'll need it

Things don't work out
All the time
Some of the greastest
Loves don't stay together
Could be yours
And minds
Cause I was taught
Never say never
But if we ever
Went our seperate ways
I know I loved enough
To last all my days
Cause this is so right
And now I can't find
Enough ways to
Say it no

I can't say it enough
Theirs nothin' like
Your love
I keep tryna find
New ways to say
But I love you baby
And nothin' can change it
No, no, no

We could be poor
On the streets
With no food to eat
Nothin' but the
Warmth of our bodies
We could be
Miles away
For months at a time
The distance
Wouldn't break us
We could be
Filthy rich together
I wouldn't love you
No better
Than I do right now
I can't find enough
Ways to say it
But I love you

I can't say it enough
Theirs nothin' like
Your love
I keep tryna find
New ways to say
But I love you baby
No, no, no

'Cause love
Is a beautiful thing

It's more rare
Than a diamond ring
So if you find it
Try to keep it
Be strong together
'Cause you'll need it

When times get rough
You can't give up
Cause nothings
More important
Than your love
Your love

I can't say it enough
Theirs nothin' like
Your love
I keep tryna find
New ways to say
But I love you baby
And nothin' can change it
No, no, no

I can't say it enough
Theirs nothin' like
Your love
I keep tryna find
New ways to say
But I love you baby
No, no, no

I can't say it enough
I can't say it enough
I can't say it enough
I can't say it enough
