

Vixen, Desperate

There you go, walking away like you did before
But I know, I know you'll be back, back for more And the game, the game will go on as it was Nothing's changed,
we're nowhere near closer to love

Aren't we desperate, are we afraid
We're just two lost and lonely people,
scared to be alone again
Aren't we desperate, are we afraid

Can't you see there are no victims, just volunteers
We won't change, we won't change until we face our fears We're alone, even though we are together right now Love remains, it's just out of reach somehow

Aren't we desperate, are we afraid
We're just two lost and lonely people,
scared to be alone again
Aren't we desperate

I know we can make it, take a good look into my eyes We'll change the future for you and I, yeah!

(Solo)

Are we so desperate, are we afraid
We're just two lost and lonely people,
scared to be alone again
Are we so desperate, are we afraid
