VIZE, Dancing Alone

The friends that start to call
I let this go too far
I've been chasing
The wrong ends
And feeding my demons
I've been losing the child
That made me who I am
The river runs deep
I'm comin' up to breathe
These are all my tears
They're gone and I'm still here
And I'm dancing alone
Dancing Alone
I've been lying on this floor
It's been 3 long hours since I said no more
I'll be dancing alone
Dancing Alone
To the chaos I call home
The days blend into one
And all the lines are gone
I've been chasing
The wrong ends
And feeding my demons I've been losing
The child
That made me who I am
The river runs deep
I'm comin' up to breathe
And I'm dancing alone
Dancing Alone
