

VIZE feat. @ILIRA, Dynamite

Would you love me
Would you hold me
If I told u that it hurts
Would you love me
Would you touch me
So explosive

Boy you better run run
call you like a siren
cause I got you under my spell
UH
Would you love me
Would you touch me
So explosive....
(LIKE DYNAMITE)

Boom Boom Boom
Boy you better be running, yeah
Boom boom Boom
Pull the trigger with no warning, yeah

Too many people
Broke my heart and I got lonely
Like lady monroe
I just need someone to love me when

I'm moody in the morning
Lonely in the night
Someone to hold me when I'm falling
And to love me with no pride

Would you love me
Would you hold me
If I told u that it hurts
Would you love me
Would you touch me
So explosive

Boy you better run run
call you like a siren
cause I got you under my spell
UH
Would you love me
Would you touch me
So explosive....
(LIKE DYNAMITE)

Boom Boom Boom
Boy you better be running yeah
Boom Boom Boom
Pull the trigger with no warning yeah

They call me crazy
Cause I run my mouth like slim shady
I got no control
I just need someone to love me when

I'm moody in the morning
Lonely in the night
Someone to hold me when I'm falling
And to love me with no pride

Would you love me
Would you hold me

If I told u that it hurts
Would you love me
Would you touch me
So explosive

Boy you better run run
call you like a siren
cause I got you under my spell
UH
Would you love me
Would you touch me
So explosive....
