

Voice Of The Beehive, I'm Nobody's Angel

I'm nobody's wife, and I'm nobody's baby
I like it that way, but then again, maybe
I nobody's valentine, and I'm nobody's pearl
And when you get right down to it, I always seem to find just, some girl
Singing, there are monsters there are angels
There's a peacefulness and a rage inside us all
There is sugar and there is salt
There is ice and there is fire
In every single heart
There are monsters and there are angels
I'm nobody's promise, and I'm nobody's chore
And I ain't got nobody, that I feel I gotta, live for (Nobody to live for)
And I'm nobody's work, and I'm nobody's company
And every time I turn around, I always seem to find, just me (Ooooh)
Singing, there are monsters there are angels
There's a peacefulness and a rage inside us all
There is sugar and there is salt
There is ice and there is fire
In every single heart
There are monsters and there are angels
Instrumental
I'm nobody's wife, and I'm nobody's baby
