

Voice Of The Beehive, Monsters And Angels

I'm nobodys' wife & I'm nobodys' baby,
I like it that way well then again maybe.
I'm nobodys' valentine & I'm nobodys' pearl seem to always find some girl singin'

There are monsters, there are angels,
there's a peaceful and a rage inside us all.
There's sugar & there is salt
there's ice and there is fire in every single heart.
There are monsters. There are angels.

I'm nobodys promise and I'm nobodys chore and I ain't got nobody that I feel I gotta live for - nobody to live for.
I'm nobodys work & I'm nobodys' company and every time I turn around I always seem to find just me singin'

There are monsters, there are angels.

I'm nobodys' wife, I'm nobodys' baby,

There are monsters, there are angels,
There are monsters, there are angels,
I'm nobodys' mother, I'm nobodys' child.
